Let's Go! Living the Great Commission

Matthew 28:16-2

January 28th, 2024

Warm Up

Share a time when you really enjoyed working/playing/serving on a team.

Digging Deeper

Read Matthew 28:16-20

Why do you think some of Jesus's disciples doubted him? What is the significance of including this piece of information in the text?

How do you feel about Jesus' commissioning evening the doubting disciples?

How does knowing that you are commissioned by Jesus who has all authority impact your thinking about great commission? Similarly, how does knowing that he is always with you impact your thinking about the great commission?

What do you think the significance is of each facet of the great commission (making disciples, baptizing, teaching, etc.)?

Next Steps

Share what it looks like for the great commission to be lived out in each of the following contexts...

- Personally
- As a family
- As a small group
- As a collective church body

Read Acts 1:6-8

Jesus calls out some specific places where the disciples will be witnesses. What contexts can you identify in your own life where you have been called to be a witness, living out the great commission?

What are the greatest challenges you face today in living out the great commission?

Final Thoughts

Take time to pray as a group for God's boldness and courage to live out the great commission each day.
